

Wisconsin Historical Society Services for Elected Officials

Contact: 608-264-6440

- Limited reproductions from the Society's collection of historic images of Wisconsin people, places and events, and regional and national history, with online sampling at www.wisconsinhistory.org/whi
- Research assistance on Wisconsin or American history for public presentations
- Information on local historical organizations in Wisconsin
- School tours at the Wisconsin Historical Museum and 10 state historic sites
- Clarification of historic preservation processes
- Assistance qualifying homeowners and commercial developers for state and federal tax credits
- Assistance for homeowners and commercial developers rehabilitating historic buildings, including help with restoration techniques
- Assistance with family history and genealogical resources in Madison and statewide through interlibrary loan and 13 area research centers
- Online resources for American history research at www.wisconsinhistory.org and, in partnership with Google, expanded access for researchers worldwide