Who We Are

The Wisconsin Historical Society is the state's memory and premier storyteller. Though we are a small state agency, we make major contributions to Wisconsin's economic, educational, and cultural health through innovative initiatives and programs.

Our Value

Our programs, historic sites, museums, collections, and archives inform and entertain while also challenging the public to think critically about their place in history. We promote Wisconsin tourism and our historic preservation program reinvigorates neighborhoods. We believe that increasing the public's knowledge of history has profound societal, cultural, and economic benefit.

Educational Opportunities for All

- 21,000 K-12 students visited our historic sites and museums.
- 3,526 students participated in the National History Day program, with 811 competing in regionals across Wisconsin and 52 qualifying for nationals.
- 43,740 students used our 4th-grade Wisconsin history textbook.
- The Society Press sold 44,738 books, many printed on Wisconsin paper.
- 31,960 people attended Society presentations and 15,000 were reached by traveling exhibits.
- 167 Wisconsin communities and 18 foreign countries were represented among viewers of our virtual Ojibwe Winter Storytelling Series.
- 50 native youth from 10 tribes contributed beadwork to an Ojibwe art exhibition at Madeline Island Museum.
- More than a dozen Ho-Chunk Nation members visited their ancestors' 1,200-year-old canoe at the State Archive Preservation Facility.

Statewide Impact

- 445 people from 21 states and 55 Wisconsin counties participated in our virtual 15th Annual Local History and Historic Preservation Conference.
- Staff held 34 tribal engagement sessions related to the new history center.
- Ended the fiscal year with 11,253 Society members (3,241 new).
- 152,755 patrons accessed materials from our Library & Archives.
- 9,600 visits to Area Research Centers (ARCs) on 12 UW campuses. Over 350 UW System classes were taught at our headquarters or ARCs, educating more than 7,000 students.
- Outreach staff provided consultations to 451 local history organizations.
- Social media followers increased 19% to 171,143. Our Facebook post on the 1,200-year-old dugout canoe recovery reached 331,668 people.

Moving Forward & Preparing for the Future

- Surpassed $39 million in private contributions for the Wisconsin history center project. Moved project into its next phase by hiring exhibit design and building architectural firms.
- Ramped up collection efforts for the new history center, acquiring items such as a UW letterman sweater worn on the TV show "Happy Days."
- Began moving artifacts from the museum on Capitol Square to the State Archive Preservation Facility to prepare the museum for future demolition.
- Resumed full programming at all 12 historic sites and museums, attracting 156,770 guests, including 21,000 K-12 students.
- Opened the new Brewhouse at Old World Wisconsin, attracting over 1,300 guests to grand opening events.
- Moved forward on restoring Circus World's historic Ringling Business Office to the 1915 era after being awarded a $499,999 Save America's Treasures grant from the National Park Service.

Private Investments and Jobs

- The State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO) approved projects that resulted in $177.7 million in income-producing historic rehabilitation work on 453 buildings in Wisconsin, bringing $28.9 million in federal historic preservation tax credits to the state and creating a projected 2,712 jobs.
- The 1867 Milwaukee Soldiers Home (left), rehabilitated over 10 years in part with historic preservation tax credits, received numerous national honors, including the nation's most prestigious for historic preservation. It now provides housing for more than 100 previously homeless veterans.
- The private sector invested $162.8 million in rehabilitated historic properties with the help of Society historic preservation specialists.
- $9.7 million of the Society's $27.2 million revenue (36%) came from private gifts, federal grants, endowments, service revenue and earned revenue.
