

Name _____

WWII Japanese Internment Assessment

1. What was your opinion about Japanese Internment when you looked at only one point of view?

2. How did your opinion change once you heard about the other points of views?

3. Where there any points of views left out of this exercise? If so, what were they?

4. Why is it important to look at multiple points of views?