

Contents

Preface for Teachers viii

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction for Students x

Chapter 1: Discovering the Past 2

Finding the Mammoth Hunters: Kenosha Public Museum 4

Discovering Aztalan: Samuel Barrett and the Milwaukee Public Museum 6

Increase Lapham: Wisconsin's First Scientist 8

Otter Spring: Protecting Wisconsin's Sacred Sites 10

Henry R. Schoolcraft: The 1820 Expedition to the Western Michigan Territory 12

Juliette M. Kinzie: Pioneer Encounters on the Wisconsin Frontier 14

Skunk Hill: Where the Dream Dance Came to Wisconsin 16

Treaty Councils: From Prairie du Chien to Madeline Island 18

Chief Buffalo and His Mission to Washington 20

The Lucerne: Preserving Wisconsin's Great Lakes Shipwrecks 22

Black Hawk's Return: "The Land Cannot Be Sold" 24

Chapter One Resources 26

Chapter 2: Immigration in Wisconsin History 30

From Factory to Farm and Back: The British Temperance Emigration Society and Savings Fund 32

Finnish Co-ops: Fair Trade in the Northwoods 34

Colonel Hans Christian Heg: A Norwegian Regiment in the Civil War 36

The Niagara: Great Lakes Palace Steamer Fire Kills Hundreds 38

Poles in Portage County 40

Iron Mining and Italian Community Building in Hurley 42

From Logging to Farming: Selling Northern Wisconsin to Immigrants 44

Attracting Newcomers to a New State 46

German Music in a German State 48

Freedom Ride!: Grant County's African American Pioneers 50

Escape from Laos: The Harrowing Journey of the Hmong to Wisconsin 52

Chapter Two Resources 54

Chapter 3: Environmental History 58

The Great Peshtigo Fire: Logging Practices Create Deadly Firestorm 60

Menominee Tribal Enterprises and Sustained-Yield Forestry 62

Fish Story: Stopping the Lamprey on the Great Lakes 64

Fish and Game: Aldo Leopold and the Conservation Movement 66

Water Policy in Wisconsin: Preserving the St. Croix Riverway 68

Project ELF: The Northwoods' Cold War Secret 70

The Man from Clear Lake: Gaylord Nelson and Earth Day 72

Recreation and Employment: The New Deal and Wisconsin Parks 74

Wisconsin's First State Park: Interstate Park at the St. Croix Dalles 76

Pesticide on Trial: Wisconsin's Role in Banning DDT 78

Let the Waters Flow: Dam Removal Projects 80

Cleaning the Fox River: The Battle over PCB Removal 82

Chapter Three Resources 84

Chapter 4: Tourism 88

- Lucky 13: Automobile Tourism to Northern Wisconsin 90
- Back to Nature: Wilderness Tourism in the Northwoods 92
- Electrifying Tourism: The Bayfield Electric Cooperative 94
- Calvin Coolidge Vacations on the Brule River 96
- Bringing Main Streets to Life: Saving Wisconsin's Downtowns 98
- The Yellowstone Trail: Wisconsin's First National Tourist Highway 100
- Governor Warren Knowles: Promoting Tourism and Protecting Water 102
- H.H. Bennett: Inventing the Wisconsin Dells 104
- Chapter Four Resources 106

Chapter 5: Industry 110

- Cold Hard Profit: Ice Harvesting in Wisconsin 112
- Hogs on Wheels: The Evolution of the Harley-Davidson Motor Company 114
- Superior Shipbuilding: Quintuplets and the War! 116
- Boom to Bust: The Brownstone Industry of Chequamegon Bay 118
- From Lead to Zinc: The Mining Heyday in Southwest Wisconsin 120
- Allis-Chalmers: Manufacturing for Manufacturers 122
- D.C. Everest: Building Wisconsin's Paper Industries 124
- Silent Service: Manitowoc's Submarine Industry in World War II 126
- Soldiers without Guns: Milwaukee Women during World War II 128
- Sawdust Cities: How Lumber Mills Created Towns 130
- Badger Ordnance: How Wisconsin Helped Win World War II 132
- Fairlawn: From Millionaire's Mansion to Orphan's Home 134
- Chapter Five Resources 136

Chapter 6: Agriculture 140

- J.I. Case: Industry for Agriculture 142
- From Wheat to Dairy: How a Little Bug Made America's Dairyland 144
- The University of Wisconsin Extension: Education for the People 146
- A New Cash Crop: The Hops Craze of Southern Wisconsin 148
- Native Fruits: Wisconsin's Cranberry Industry 150
- The Milk Strikes: Dairy Farmers Respond to Low Prices 152
- Milk and Cheese Paradise: Wisconsin's Dairy Industry 154
- German POWs: Easing Wisconsin's Agricultural Labor Shortages 156
- The Ho-Chunk Bison Ranch: Restoration of Native Community 158
- Chapter Six Resources 160

Chapter 7: Social Issues 164

- Pursuing Freedom: Wisconsin Defies the Fugitive Slave Law 166
- Breaking the Color Line: Milwaukee Housing Segregation 168
- Dr. Kate Pelham Newcomb: Rural Healthcare on Snowshoes 170
- Cordelia Harvey: Northern Hospitals Close to Home 172
- Temperance in Wisconsin: Frances E. Willard, Carry A. Nation, and the WCTU 174
- We Won't Fight: German Immigrants Protest the Civil War Draft 176
- Don't Pick on Us!: Hispanic Farmworkers March to Madison 178
- Lloyd Barbee: Fighting Segregation in Milwaukee Schools 180

America’s Longest Strike: The Kohler Company Strike of 1934–1941 182

Olympia Brown and the Women’s Suffrage Movement 184

Helping Hands: Wisconsin’s Schools for the Deaf and Blind 186

Senator Joseph McCarthy: The Rise and Fall of an Anti-Communist 188

The Posse Comitatus: Rural Terrorism at Tigerton Dells 190

The Bombing of Sterling Hall: Homegrown Terrorism on the UW Campus 192

In the English Language: The Bennett Law Controversy 194

School Vouchers: The Milwaukee Experiment 196

Vitamin Research and the Wisconsin Alumni Research Foundation 198

Chapter Seven Resources 200

Chapter 8: Arts, Entertainment, and Sports 206

Ed “Strangler” Lewis: Wisconsin’s World Champion Wrestler 208

Lunt and Fontanne: First Couple of the American Stage 210

Of Woods and Prairies: Children’s Author Laura Ingalls Wilder 212

Packers as Packers: Meatpackers and Wisconsin’s Favorite Team 214

Three Ring Circus: How Wisconsin Became America’s Circus Capital 216

Vinnie Ream Hoxie: The Woman Who Carved Lincoln 218

Frank Lloyd Wright: Legendary Architect 220

Wheel Speed: Wisconsin’s Link to Auto Racing 222

Chapter Eight Resources 224

Chapter 9: Government 228

Pursuing Reform: The Life and Work of Robert M. La Follette 230

Wisconsin’s War Effort: Liberty Loans and the Four-Minute Men 232

Protecting Workers: John Commons and Workmen’s Compensation 234

Edwin Witte and Social Security: A New Deal for American Workers 236

Mr. Berger Goes to Washington: Milwaukee Demands Representation 238

Ending Vietnam: The Legacy of Melvin Laird, Secretary of Defense 240

Help for the Unemployed: Wisconsin’s Unemployment Compensation Law 242

Changing the Welfare State: Governor Tommy Thompson and the W-2 Program 244

Lee Sherman Dreyfus: Political Maverick in a Red Vest 246

The Battle for Fair Representation: Wisconsin’s Redistricting Struggles 248

From Milwaukee to the Promised Land: The Story of Golda Meir 250

The Right to Fish, Hunt, and Gather: Ojibwe Treaty Rights 252

Chapter Nine Resources 254

Linking Historic Research to the Wisconsin Model Academic Standards 259

Where Highlights in Wisconsin History Happened 262