

Learning from the Land: Wisconsin Land Use

Chapter 1: The Land Where We Stand

- Choices and Changes
- Of Ice and Land
- Of Rock and Regions
- Of Climate, Soils, and Vegetation

Chapter 2: The First Land Shapers

- Living from the Land's Resources
- Finding Special Places
- The Meaning of Mounds
- The First Farmers

Chapter 3: The Fur Trade Brings New Ways of Living

- Wisconsin Indian Traditions
- The Fur Trade
- New Attitudes

Chapter 4: Treaty Making and Land Taking

- Treaties and Trouble
- Before Black Hawk
- On the Look-Out for Lead
- The Black Hawk War

Chapter 5: Surveying, Selling, and Settling the Land

- Laws about Land
- Surveying the Land
- Selling the Land
- Settling the Land

Chapter 6: Timber!

- The Giant of the Northwoods – The White Pine
- Changes to the Northwoods
- New Technology Transforms Lumbering
- Fire!
- The Forests Disappear
- Keepers of the Forest

Chapter 7: From Wheat to Milk and More

- Wisconsin as a Breadbasket
- Becoming the Dairy State
- Many Farms, Many Crops, Many Different People
- Farm or Factory?

Chapter 8: Living with the Land
A Lover of Land
Designing for Tomorrow