

THAT'S THE TICKET!

A Parade of Presidential Elections

REPUBLICAN TICKET ✓

Presidential candidate: ULYSSES S. GRANT, U.S. Army General
 VP candidate: SCHUYLER COLFAX, Indiana Congressman
 Popular votes: 3,013,650 (52.7%)
 Electoral votes: 214

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Presidential candidate: Horatio Seymour, New York Governor
 VP candidate: Francis Blair, former Missouri Congressman
 Popular votes: 2,708,744 (47.3%)
 Electoral votes: 80

1868

ELECTORAL MAP How each state voted

Wisconsin's Choice
GRANT

Election Facts

- Feuds over postwar Reconstruction in the South torpedoed Andrew Johnson's Republican administration.
- Democrats criticized military occupation of the South and new legal rights for freed slaves.
- Republicans ran as the party that won the war.
- Grant's status as a war hero helped him win support among new black voters and win the election.

Ulysses S. Grant.
WHI-24121