MARITIME CULTURAL LANDSCAPE SYMPOSIUM
14-15 October 2015

Day 1: The Maritime Cultural Landscape Symposium

Registration and Coffee (7:30-8:00)

Welcome (8:00-8:10)
Jim Draeger, State Historic Preservation Officer, Wisconsin

Keynote: Sink or Swim: Addressing Maritime Cultural Landscapes in the National Register (8:10-8:50) (30 minute presentation, 10 min. Q&A)
Paul Loether, Chief, National Register/National Historic Landmarks Program, National Park Service

Session 1: Perspectives (8:50-9:40)

James Delgado, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, Office of National Marine Sanctuaries, Maritime Heritage Program
Doug Harris, Narragansett Tribe
James Moore, Office of Environmental Programs, Bureau of Ocean Energy Management
Daina Penkiunas, Wisconsin Deputy State Historic Preservation Officer
Barbara Wyatt, National Register and National Historic Landmark Program, National Park Service

BREAK (9:40-10:00)

Session 2: Characterizing Maritime Cultural Landscapes (10:00-11:00)
Facilitator, Brad Barr, NPS (15 minutes per speaker, with 5 minute Q&A each)

Characterizing MCLs from First Principles: Cultural Landscape Approaches and MCLs
Valerie Grussing, Cultural Resources Coordinator, NOAA/ONMS National Marine Protected Areas

Characterizing MCLs in the Great Lakes: Western Lake Michigan
John Jensen, University of West Florida

Identifying Indigenous Cultural Landscapes in the Chesapeake Bay
Deanna Beacham, Chesapeake Bay Office, NPS

Session 3: The MCL Approach: Pros and Cons, Panel Discussion (11:00-12:30)
Moderator, Barbara Wyatt, NPS (15 minutes per speaker; 30- minute panel discussion)

Using the MCL Approach in National Marine Sanctuaries
James Delgado, Director, NOAA/ONMS Maritime Heritage Program
Challenges of Using the MCL Approach on the Outer Continental Shelf
Brandi Carrier, Office of Renewable Energy Programs, BOEM

The Many and Varied MCLs of New York State
Daria Merwin, New York SHPO

Challenges in Nominating MCLs to the National Register
Mike Russo, Acting Archeologist, National Register and NHL Programs, NPS

LUNCH, provided (12: 30-1:30)

Session 4: Case Studies (1:30-3:00)
Facilitator, Daina Penkiunas, Wisconsin SHPO (15 minutes per speaker; 15 minutes Q & A at end of session)

Drakes Bay NHL Historic District
Paul Engle, Point Reyes National Seashore, NPS

Landscape vs. Discontinuous District: Florida Dugout Canoes
Julie Byrd, Florida SHPO

Delineating Maritime Cultural Landscapes at National Parks: Dry Tortugas National Park and St. Croix Scenic Waterway
Bert Ho, Submerged Resources Center, NPS

The Multi-Faceted Apostle Islands
David Cooper, Apostle Islands National Lakeshore, NPS

The Quincy Smelter Complex as a Maritime Cultural Landscape
Brenda Williams, Quinn Evans Architects

BREAK with refreshments (3:00 – 3:20)

Session 4: Case Studies, continued (3:20-4:50)
Facilitator, Daina Penkiunas, Wisconsin SHPO (15 minutes per speaker; 15 minutes Q & A at end of session)

Mallows Bay as a Maritime Cultural Landscape
Deborah Marx, NOAA/ONMS Maritime Heritage Program, and Susan Langley, MD SHPO (tentative)

Waves of History: Maritime Cultural Landscapes in Hawai‘i
Hans Van Tilburg, NOAA
Risk, Salvage, and Exploring the Concept of the Maritime Frontier: Utilizing Theory to Frame a Maritime Cultural Landscapes Approach in the Florida Keys
Josh Marano, Biscayne National Park, NPS

From Land to Sea, or Sea to Land: Reconciling Key Features of Terrestrial and Maritime Landscapes
Brinnen Carter, Cultural Resource Manager, Sitka National Historic Park, NPS

Archaeological and Biological Assessment of Submerged Landforms off the California and Oregon Coasts
David Ball, BOEM

Reception at the University Club (5:00 - 7:00)

Day 2: The Maritime Cultural Landscape Symposium

Introduction to Day 2 (8:00-8:10)

Session 5: Non-submerged Prehistoric Maritime Landscapes (8:10-10:10)
Facilitator, Mike Russo, NPS (15 minutes per speaker, with 5 minute Q&A each)

12,000 Years of MCLs on California's Northern Channel Islands: From Paleocoastal Lithic Workshops to Chinese Abalone Fishing Camps
Todd Braje, San Diego State University

It’s not Just Garbage: Identifying Ceremony and Cosmology in Shell Middens
Mike Russo, Acting Archeologist, National Register and NHL Program, NPS

Island Landscapes of the North American South Atlantic: Deep Histories and Endangered Resources
Matt Sanger, SUNY at Binghamton

Maritime Cultural Landscapes in Motion: Futures Past along the Northern Gulf Coast of Florida
Ken Sassaman, University of Florida

MCLs on Eastern National Forests: The Example of Late Woodland Landscapes in the Eastern Upper Peninsula of Michigan
Sean Dunham, Heritage Program Manager, Chipewa National Forest, USFS

Constructing Shell Landscapes in Southwest Florida
Margo Schwadron, Southeast Archeology Center, NPS

BREAK (10:10-10:30)
Session 6: Native American, Alaskan and Hawaiian Landscapes (10:30-12:15)
Facilitator, Valerie Grussing, NOAA (15 minutes per speaker, with 5 minute Q &A each)

Sitka Indian Village: Maritime Cultural Landscape vs. Historic District
Jessica Perkins, Sitka National Historical Park, NPS

Hawaiian Maritime Cultural Landscapes
Trisha Kehaulani Watson, Honua Consulting

Ceremonial Stone Landscapes of New England and Developing Best Practices to Assess Submerged Paleocultural Landscape
Doug Harris, Narragansett Tribe, and Doug Jones, BOEM

The Grand Ronde, Linking Tribal Cultural Landscapes and MCLs
Briece Edwards, Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde

The Nest of the Thunderbirds: MCLs of the Bad River Band of the Ojibwe
Edith Leoso, THPO, Bad River Band of Lake Superior Tribe of the Chippewa, and Jessie Conaway, University of Wisconsin

LUNCH, provided (12:15-1:15)

Session 7: Management and Protection of MCLs (1:15 - 3:15)
Facilitator, Barbara Wyatt (15 minutes per speaker, with 5 minute Q &A each)

Coastal Battlefields
Kristen McMasters, American Battlefield Protection Program, NPS

USS Huron: From National Tragedy to National Register
Anna Gibson Holloway, Maritime Heritage Program, NPS

NPS Response to Climate Change and Cultural Resource Preservation
Susan Dolan, Program Manager, Park Cultural Landscapes Program, NPS

Valor in the Pacific, Overview of the Resources
Scott Pawlowski, Chief of Cultural and Natural Resources, Valor in the Pacific National Park, NPS

Civil War: The CSS Shenandoah and Whaling Heritage in the Western Arctic
Brad Barr, NOAA/ONMS Maritime Heritage Program

WWII - Battle of the Atlantic
Joe Hoyt, NOAA/ONMS Monitor National Marine Sanctuary

BREAK with refreshments (3:15 – 3:35)
Session 8: MCL Legal Considerations Panel Discussion (3:35–4:45)
Moderator, James Delgado, NOAA

Ole Varmer, NOAA, International Section, Office of General Counsel
Rae Gould, ACHP
Chip Brown, Wisconsin SHPO Compliance Officer
David Thulman, George Washington University, SAA
Jessica Perkins, NPS
Caroline Blanco, NSF

Session 9: Day 2 Concluding Remarks (4:45–5:00)
Ben Ford, Indiana University of Pennsylvania