From the Boston Courier.

Shake, W. C.

A young passenger on the way to England from Fort on an emigrant ship, in the company of a friend, was asked if he had paid his passage money. He replied, "Yes, I paid my passage money, but I have not yet seen the fare."
FREEDMANS JOURNAL

RECOLLECTIONS OF THE CIVIL WAR

In the absence of other means of communication, the stories of the Civil War are preserved in the memories of those who lived through it. These stories, often told in letters and diaries, provide a glimpse into the lives of ordinary people during that tumultuous time. One such story is the recollection of a young man who fought for the Union Army.

Dear Cherished Home,

I have been away from you for so long, but my heart has always been with you. The war has been hard on us all, and I miss the familiar faces of home. However, I am writing to tell you about my experiences during the Civil War.

I enlisted in the Union Army and was stationed in Virginia. The battles were long and exhausting, but we fought with determination. One of the most memorable battles was at Gettysburg. The day was hot and the smoke thick, but our soldiers held their ground. I remember looking out at the battlefield and seeing the flag of our great nation flying high above us.

I have not heard from many of my friends since I left home, and I long to hear their voices. Please give my regards to all who remember me.

With love,

[Name]

TAKING MY GUN

I have a guns and I take it to school. The boys are always after me for it, but I never give it to them. I keep it close by me, and not only keep it with me, but I also carry it in my pocket.

[Anon.]

BOATING AND LODGING

DEAD MAN TELLING NO TALES

A man was found dead in the river. He had been boating with his friends, but something went wrong and he fell into the water. The police are investigating the case, but so far they have been unable to find any clues.

[Anon.]

FREE SCHOOL

STEAMBOATS AND CLOTHES STORING

The Free School in New York has opened its doors to the children of the Freedmen. The school is located in the heart of the city and is free for all children, regardless of their background.

[Anon.]

FLYING A KITE

A young boy was flying a kite in the park when it got caught on a tree. He tried to pull it down, but it was too high. He called for help, but no one came. Finally, a man saw him and came to his aid. He cut the kite free and helped the boy get it down.

[Anon.]
The Freedom's Journal

Volume II

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, JUNE 2, 1827

SEVEN YEARS' JOURNAL

To Free People of Color

The Freedman's Journal

By the Editor

To Free People of Color

New York, Aug. 20, 1827.

To Free People of Color

New York, Aug. 27, 1827.

To Free People of Color

New York, Aug. 29, 1827.

To Free People of Color

New York, Sept. 6, 1827.

To Free People of Color

New York, Sept. 13, 1827.

To Free People of Color

New York, Sept. 20, 1827.

To Free People of Color

New York, Sept. 27, 1827.

To Free People of Color

New York, Oct. 4, 1827.

To Free People of Color

New York, Oct. 11, 1827.

To Free People of Color

New York, Oct. 18, 1827.

To Free People of Color

New York, Oct. 25, 1827.

To Free People of Color

New York, Nov. 1, 1827.

To Free People of Color

New York, Nov. 8, 1827.

To Free People of Color

New York, Nov. 15, 1827.

To Free People of Color

New York, Nov. 22, 1827.

To Free People of Color

New York, Dec. 5, 1827.

To Free People of Color

New York, Dec. 12, 1827.

To Free People of Color

To Free People of Color

To Free People of Color