The image contains a page from a historical newspaper, possibly from the 19th century, containing text discussing various topics including foreign policy, international relations, and current events. The text is too small to transcribe accurately, but it appears to be a mix of paragraphs and possibly an advertisement or announcement. The page is part of a larger document that may include multiple columns or sections, typical of 19th-century newspapers. The page number is not clearly visible, but the layout suggests it is from a historical periodical.
DISTURBANCES.—On Thursday last a little girl, the daughter of Mr. Mathewson, was found dead in a room in her house, with her hands tied together and her head covered with a cloth. The cause of her death is not yet ascertained. The body was taken to the morgue for examination.

DOROTHY GAYE.

Mr. Davis, in his speech, referred to the great necessity of improving the moral condition of the community. He said that the proper education of children and the prevention of vice were essential to the prosperity of the country. He urged the necessity for the support of schools and the encouragement of moral instruction.

The declaration of war was read to the Senate on Saturday last, and the resolution was adopted. The President was absent from the meeting.

The announcement of the results of the late elections was made to the Senate on Monday last. The Senate was adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday last. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS."

The Senate of the State of New York, in Congress assembled, do hereby declare that, in the opinion of this body, the war with Great Britain is necessary and just. The Senate is also of opinion that the President has acted wisely and honorably in declaring war. The Senate is further of opinion that the President has done all in his power to prevent the war, and that the war is necessary to the preservation of the Union.

The Senate adjourned.