DOMESTIC SLAVE TRADE.

From a correspondent in New York.

The high ground of the South, N. C. C. at the date of Sept. 10, 1852, has witnessed a scene of public interest in that place, with a view to the interests of colored people. The New York Society of Friends, in their report for the year ending Dec. 31, 1851, state that they have received-from the correspondent mentioned in the last number-a letter from the Society, dated Nov. 21, 1851, to the effect that the Society had purchased a slave from the hands of a colored man, and a negro from the hands of another colored man, for the purpose of sending them to Canada. The Society also state that they have been informed by a colored man, that he had been sold by the owner of the negro, and a negro from the hands of another colored man, for the purpose of sending them to Canada. The Society also state that they have been informed by a colored man, that he had been sold by the owner of the negro, and a negro from the hands of another colored man, for the purpose of sending them to Canada.

FREEDOM'S JOURNAL

OCT. 14

The miser who attempted to abuse a near Reading, a short time since, named Samuel Pugh.

On Sunday last a man was shot in the streets of Philadelphia, in the presence of many persons, including several of the police. The man was a member of the police force, and was shot by a negro man, who had been arrested for an assault on a woman. The negro was discharged by the police, and the injured man was taken to the hospital, where he died of his injuries.

The Mississippi River has been in a state of alarm for some time past, and the government has sent out a large force of marines and troops to prevent further mischief.

In a recent dispatch from the War Department, it is stated that the government has decided to send a large force of troops to the southern states, in order to prevent further insurrections. The troops will be under the command of General Sherman, and are expected to arrive in the southern states in a few days.

The government has also decided to send a large force of troops to the western states, in order to prevent further insurrections in that section. The troops will be under the command of General Grant, and are expected to arrive in the western states in a few days.

In a recent dispatch from the War Department, it is stated that the government has decided to send a large force of troops to the eastern states, in order to prevent further insurrections in that section. The troops will be under the command of General Meade, and are expected to arrive in the eastern states in a few days.

The government has also decided to send a large force of troops to the northern states, in order to prevent further insurrections in that section. The troops will be under the command of General Sherman, and are expected to arrive in the northern states in a few days.
