BOARDING & LODGING

The Boarding and Lodging section is a resource for individuals looking to find temporary or permanent accommodation. It includes listings for boarding houses, lodgings, and roommates.

AFRICAN FREE SCHOOLS

This section provides information about African Free Schools, which were established to promote education among the African American community. The schools were founded to provide quality education and to counteract the negative effects of slavery.

TERMS OF ADMISSION

The terms of admission for these schools vary, but typically include requirements such as age, academic record, and financial status. Students are often required to pay tuition, and fees may vary depending on the school and the level of study.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES

The leisure activities section offers information on various activities and events that individuals can participate in for recreation or relaxation. This may include sports, arts and crafts, and cultural events.

NOTICE TO BOOT CLEANERS

This notice is for boot cleaners, providing information on the services they offer and guidelines for their operation. It includes details on how to clean shoes and boots, as well as tips on maintaining their own business.

POLISHING BLACKING

The polishing blacking section offers information on the process of polishing blacking, which is a technique used to clean and maintain the appearance of shoes and boots.

NEW YORK TIMES ADVERTISER

The New York Times Advertiser is a local newspaper that provides news and information about the local community. It includes articles on current events, local businesses, and community events.

TRAINING THE INSTRUCTION OF THE INSTRUCTOR

This section provides training for instructors, offering guidelines and resources to help them improve their teaching skills and enhance their performance.

NOTICE TO ROOMMATES

This notice is for roommates, providing information on the responsibilities of living together and guidelines for maintaining a healthy living environment. It includes tips on managing space, respecting each other's privacy, and resolving conflicts.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Announcements section provides updates on local events, job opportunities, and other relevant news. It includes information on upcoming events, job openings, and other community news.

THE FREDOM'S JOURNAL

The Freedom's Journal is a newspaper that focuses on issues related to African American rights and freedoms. It includes articles on civil rights, political events, and other relevant topics.