Dancing Humor.—We are glad to perceive that the police are paying attention to our suggestion to ruin the fashionable entertainment by means of an exhibition. We understand, in fact, that a number of the Saloon Room proprietors have been arrested, and that the police are now on the lookout for other similar establishments.

Volunteer.—A number of the volunteer companies have been ordered to report for duty at once, and it is understood that the drill will be commenced immediately. The men are expected to be in perfect condition for the work.

Portfolio.—For President's Journal: To Adeline. At the daily meeting, the president, Mr. Smith, gave the following resolution: "That this body do hereby express its appreciation of the services of the above-named gentleman." The resolution was unanimously adopted.

The Place of the Dead.—A number of the friends of the deceased have been to the cemetery to pay their last respects to the remains of the deceased. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning.

Pig.—A number of the farmers have been particularly interested in the pig exhibited at the fair. The pig was of a fine breed, and it is expected that it will bring a good price at market.

Olive.—A number of the olive oil manufacturers have been particularly interested in the olive oil exhibited at the fair. The oil was of a fine quality, and it is expected that it will bring a good price at market.
