LEWIS HARRISON,

Respectfully informs his friends and the public that he has opened his establishment in the New York Journal of Commerce, No. 126, below the 5th Street, for the accommodation of gentlemen of fashion, with Boarding and Lodging, on the most reasonable terms.

He has in his house a very pleasant and pleasant situation, and is ready to accommodate any person who may wish to use his establishment, and can be easily reached by the streets of all who frequent the city.

New York, April 29, 1832.
we have the Hindoo, the Arab, and the American, all offering to send their ships to the East, and it is said that the words of the moment are, "We shall go to the East on wheels." The American is probably the most ready to make the attempt, and we have no doubt that he will do so. The English are also ready, and we have no doubt that they will do so. The French are ready, and we have no doubt that they will do so. The Dutch are ready, and we have no doubt that they will do so. The Spanish are ready, and we have no doubt that they will do so. The Portuguese are ready, and we have no doubt that they will do so. The Swedes are ready, and we have no doubt that they will do so. The Danes are ready, and we have no doubt that they will do so. The Norwegians are ready, and we have no doubt that they will do so. The Icelanders are ready, and we have no doubt that they will do so. The Greenlanders are ready, and we have no doubt that they will do so. The Laplanders are ready, and we have no doubt that they will do so. The Finns are ready, and we have no doubt that they will do so. The Lapps are ready, and we have no doubt that they will do so. The Russians are ready, and we have no doubt that they will do so. The Chinese are ready, and we have no doubt that they will do so. The Japanese are ready, and we have no doubt that they will do so. The Koreans are ready, and we have no doubt that they will do so.
