Oct. 16–18 | Hilton Appleton Paper Valley

Local History & Historic Preservation Conference

History Museum at the Castle

330 E. College Ave., Appleton, WI

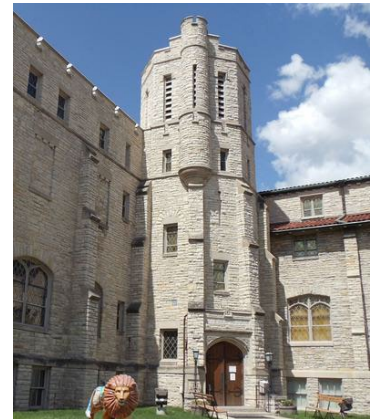

Founded in 1872 as a Pioneer Association, the Outagamie County Historical Society steadfastly preserves the history of the Fox Cities in east central Wisconsin. Now affectionately known as the History Museum at the Castle, due to our location in a former Masonic Temple, the organization is a thriving cultural institution with deep ties to the local community. At the History Museum, we continually seek to inspire people to discover and appreciate the rich history of the Fox Valley through exhibition, education, and collections. Museum Open House

Tour the History Museum at the Castle, including its newest exhibit, You Are Here. You Are Here is a new exhibit that will make a generational impact on how people experience and understand the history of the Fox Valley. Learn how and why the Fox Cities came to be through four thematic areas demonstrating the relevance and interconnectivity of the region's landscape, peoples, and cultures through time.
