

Name: _____
Date: _____

HISTORICAL CONTEXT

Consider that everything in history is an interconnected web. The events that happen are a careful fit to the others surrounding it. Therefore, you cannot fully understand one piece of history without thinking about its context. Historical context is the “Big Picture” things that happen before, during, and after the topic you are examining. Think about your topic and fill in the chart below.

