

What can we do for you?

GOVERNMENT RELATIONS

The Wisconsin Historical Society connects people to the past by collecting, preserving, and sharing stories. Our office provides the direct link between Wisconsin's governing body, the needs of your community, and the expertise of the State Historical Society.

Congressional Office and Constituent Relations

wihist.org/LegislatorsGuide

Questions about Tax Credits?

wihist.org/TaxCredits

Compliance of State Burial Law

wihist.org/StateBurialLaw

Historic Building Registries

wihist.org/HistoricRegistries

Genealogy Program

wihist.org/GenealogyProgram

Historic Sites and Program Updates

wihist.org/Sites

Questions?

Contact Kate Easton,
Director of Government Relations, at (608) 264-6442 or kate.easton@wisconsinhistory.org

Library Archives

wihist.org/libraryarchives

Capitol Art Collection Loan Program

wihist.org/artworkloan

PK-12 Education

wisconsinhistory.org/learn

Wisconsin Historical Society Press

wisconsinhistory.org/press

Wisconsin's New History center

wisconsinhistoricalmuseum.org

